APF – MILL HILL MISSION APPEAL

This weekend we welcome Mrs. Monica Biscoe, who makes an appeal on behalf of APF-Mill Hill. Please note that there will be NO collection for the APF. The appeal is to inform you of the work done by APF, and to ask you for prayers. Financial support is of course important, and this can be given through their "Red Boxes".

CHRISTMAS MASSES

Fr. Peter is considering whether Midnight Mass or an earlier Vigil Mass would best serve the needs of the Parish. Last Christmas, for a number of reasons, we broke with the long tradition of celebrating Midnight Mass and instead celebrated a Vigil Mass at 6pm on Christmas Eve, involving the children of our parish in a very active way. If you have a strong preference for either option, please let Fr. Peter know your views as soon as possible. Thank you.

URGENT

At present there is an ongoing independent review of safeguarding within the Diocese being carried out by the NSPCC. To aid in that process questionnaires have been circulated to all parishes and will be available at the back of the Church or via Karen Waters, our Parish Safeguarding Rep. It is important that the views of a wide audience are sought and as such I would be grateful if you would consider spending a couple of minutes to complete a questionnaire and return it to the NSPCC in the envelope provided. All information provided will be treated in the strictest confidence. The final date for submission of questionnaires is 27th November 2011. Further information on the Review and its purpose can be obtained either through the Diocese Safeguarding Office: 01752 560792 or via Wendy Noctor, Senior Consultant with the NSPCC: 0116 234 722
